

Through Air Dried (TAD) Roll Towels

The RedDot Brands white through air dried (TAD) roll towel is our premium towel product for environments that require the very highest level of quality. This product is perfect for Class A office buildings, four and five-star hotels, acute care hospitals, upscale dining facilities or anywhere the customer wants to impress the end user with an ultimate hand washing experience.

- High-capacity 1000' roll towel means fewer change outs and fewer customer outages.
- Our TAD towels are incredibly absorbent and have a cloth-like texture. Customers will use less without sacrificing quality.
- Can be used in both our automated hands-free and manual roll towel dispensers.
- A sustainable story can be further told by using RedDot's touchless towel dispensers to reduce waste by 30% versus using traditional folded hand towels.
- Using RedDot Brands touch-free dispensing systems reduces the chance of cross-contamination, giving you a more hygienic washroom or foodservice setting.
